

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. 1825

To improve the management of the Job Corps program, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

DECEMBER 13 (legislative day, DECEMBER 11), 2013

Ms. COLLINS (for herself, Mrs. McCASKILL, and Mr. MANCHIN) introduced the following bill; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions

A BILL

To improve the management of the Job Corps program, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Securing Job Corps
5 Centers Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND PURPOSE.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The Department of Labor’s management of 9 the Job Corps program has recently suffered from 10 poor budgeting and financial management. The Of-

1 fice of Inspector General of the Department of 2 Labor found that the Department had projected
3 costs erroneously and managerial factors exacer-
4 bated the resulting budget shortfalls.

5 (2) For nearly 50 years, the Job Corps pro-
6 gram was overseen by a single individual appointed 7 to a position in the Senior Executive Service. The 8 management structure for the program has ex-
9 panded to include 3 positions in the Senior Execu-10 tive Service. This expansion has not contributed to 11 better management of the program but has created
12 uncertainty about roles and responsibilities, accord-
13 ing to the May 31, 2013, report by the Office of In-14 spector General.

15 (3) The Department of Labor has not been suf-
16 ficiently transparent with Congress regarding poli-
17 cies that significantly affect constituents, particu-
18 larly decisions to suspend enrollments or reduce the 19 number of enrollees the Job Corps program serves.

20 (4) An advisory board of Job Corps operational
21 experts can assist the new leadership of the Depart-
22 ment of Labor as the Department—

23 (A) addresses the structural challenges the 24 Job Corps program faces in its administration; 25 and

1 (B) returns the program to the administrative 2 and operational efficiency that characterized 3 the program's first 50 years.

4 (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
5 gress that—

6 (1) local Job Corps center operational experts
7 should play an important role in ensuring the effective
8 management by the Secretary of the Job Corps
9 program, by informing the Office of Job Corps on 10 the impact Federal decisions may have on Job Corps
11 campuses;

12 (2) the Job Corps program continues to 13 produce results as the economy of the United States
14 recovers and unemployment remains high, as more
15 than 85 percent of Job Corps graduates obtain a 16 job, enroll in higher education, or enlist in the military 17 upon completion; and

18 (3) the 125 Job Corps center campuses, which 19 includes locations in nearly every State, have compiled
20 an impressive record of preparing at-risk youth 21 for the workforce or higher education, and in nearly 22 50 years, more than 3,000,000 youth have obtained, 23 through the Job Corps program, the job and social 24 skills needed to start a career or obtain further educational 25 credentials.
